HOODED ATTACKER IS APPREHENDED AND HELD IN CUSTODY

The "hooded attacker" who has terrorized Berkeley and Albany men was apprehended in Sausalito Park and is now in custody after having admittedly confessed to the assault and rape of nearly a dozen victims.

Rayford E. Gillam, 21-year-old unemployed laborer and former mental patient is being held on $10,500 bail on charges of attempted criminal assault, aggravated lewd and lascivious conduct and other crimes.

In the lineup, four of the victims identified him.

The attacks started to take place one day after he was released from Agnews State Hospital. Police believe Gillam may also be responsible for five other cases; two in Oakland, and one in Castro Valley, Orinda and Lafayette.

ALBANY COMMITTEE SET FOR VETERANS' PARADE

Committee assignments for Alameda County's ninth annual Veterans' Day parade have been announced by Arthur B. Geen, general chairman—as veterans organization leaders from Albany in drafting plans for the annual observance, to be staged November 11 in downtown Oakland.

The three-hour parade, starting at 10:30 a.m., will draw more than 100 marchers, including hundreds of bands, drill teams, lavish floats and horsemen, and an expected crowd of 200,000.

Alameda County's event has been designated as one of the Nation's five official regional observances, by the President's Veterans' Day National Committee.

Committee chairmen include: Groom of Oakland, parade; Councilman George A. Rose of Alameda, distinguished guests; Helen F. Strutz of Hayward, budget and awards; A. Lee Oder of Berkeley, transportation; John B. Berg of San Leandro, reception; R. A. Steffenauer of Pleasanton, reviewing stand; Ed and B. Curran of Oakland, public relations; and Ralph Perry of Berkeley, secretary.

The observance is directed by the Alameda County Veterans Affairs Commission, and sponsored by the Board of Supervisors and all city councils, and held in a different city each year.

Eddie Johnson will be parade coordinator for the Albany area. Aiding in Veterans' Day planning will be Walter Ellis, Jr.,

K O SUNDAY SUCCESSFUL IN ALBANY

10,049 Albany residents received Sabin vaccine at the Albany High School Auditorium Sunday, November 4, thereby eliminating any future polio epidemic within the City.

Although officials expected a decrease of at least 10 per cent from the number who received Sabin I, the turnout was only 494 short of the initial KO Sunday.

Make-up Clinics will be held at Garfield Jr. High School on November 8, 4:00 to 8:00 p.m., and at the Alameda County Health Department, 499 5th Street, Wednesday through Friday, from 1:00 through 9:00 p.m., and on Saturday from 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m.

KENNETH FORRY, ALBANY SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS (Left, above) congratulates Robert G. Dennis, (Right) General Chairman for the United Crusade campaign within the Albany City Schools, and Mrs. Doris Maier (Center) Vice Chairman, on the Albany Schools' being the first school district in Alameda County to reach 100 per cent of their goal. The Albany school employees, whose quota was set at $1,760, have now reached $1,883 or 107 per cent of quota.

In concluding the United Crusade campaign within the schools, Dennis, principal of Adult Education Center, says, "It has been a real pleasure and a distinct privilege to have served with the United Crusade in the capacities I have over the past three years. I am proud and grateful this year, as I was last, in seeing our school employees not only reach but exceed their quota. I am particularly appreciative of having had Mrs. Maier, who has been so extremely helpful and cooperative, as my Vice Chairman this year and for the outstanding work of the several school and departmental chairmen. It was particularly gratifying to find that every individual school—Albany High, Albany Adult Center, Cornell, MacGregor, Marin and Vista—exceeded its individual quota. "This," Dennis continues, "is another example of how Albany school employees do their part, and do it well, in furthering worthy community and Bay Area projects."

The school chairmanship, which has been held by Dennis for the past two years following a year as Vice Chairman, will go in the 1963 United Crusade Campaign to Mrs. Maier, teacher of speech correction in the Albany City Schools.

Wet Dry Day For Key Food

It was that hot October day last week. The Police Department and the Fire Department had finished tallying up the score of water damage from the recent storm. Albany residents were unclogging their garden hoses with an eye on the rapidly drying borders recently planted to sweet peas and daffodils for spring blooming. The unseasonal storm was a thing long past and Indian Summer settled in. This was the day that Herb Hahn unlocked the door of Key Foods, 1831 Solano, and sloshed into an inch of water.

When he recovered from the initial shock of finding the market flooded when there wasn't a cloud in the blue sky, he called the City Inspector of Berkeley and the logical explanation became apparent. The Berkeley main line had become plugged and had backed up into the market. The Berkeley detail manned the manholes for four blocks, dug a hole in the front of the store, fixed the line, and mopped the floor.

Housewives arrived, lists in hand, and business resumed as usual. The carbonated beverage business was good. It was hot, real hot, all day.

Albany High PTA to Hear Talk on Fraud

"How Does the Better Business Bureau Protect You?" is the topic B. Charles Wansley, president of the Better Business Bureau of Metropolitan Oakland, has selected to discuss at the November 8 Albany High PTA meeting, according to Mrs. Eldon Wolf, program chairman.

Wansley will tell of many ways the public is protected from fraud, selling practices and deceit and unfair advertising. A sixteen year veteran with the Better Business Bureau of the Oakland and San Francisco offices, he is presently governor of the 6th District which includes the entire West Coast and is secretary of the executive committee for the Association of Better Business Bureaus. Also, Wansley serves on the advertising improvement committee and nominating committee of the association.

The meeting, which is open to the public, will start at 1:30 in the Albany High School cafeteria with Mrs. Clyde Nottingham, PTA president, presiding.

Decorations chairman Mrs. Ernest Kester and Mrs. Arthur Overman will be featured as well as Special Education chairman, Mrs. Rex Volheim and Mrs. Freda Hanell, school nurse.

Eleventh grade room representatives Mrs. Earl Hook and Mrs. Eugene Blank will head the refreshment and serving committees.

REZONING OF HILL LUMBER PASSED BY COUNCIL MONDAY

A public hearing on the application of the Hill Lumber Company for reclassification to R-3 multi-family residential brought citizen protest at the Monday night, November 5, Albany City Council meeting.

Oscar Schutz, of Brighton Avenue, was not protesting the rezoning in its entirety, but wanted reassurance that the apartments would be of good quality and would be an asset to the residential area, and that they would taper in an easterly direction into the residential district. "It is up to us," he said, "to keep residential atmosphere there."

He was told by Administrative Officer James B. Turner that the recommendation of the Planning and Zoning Committee had this in mind when they created the R-2 buffer zone east of San Gabriel to Spokane.

The protest registered by Virginia Ebert was more vigorous. "We bought here because it was a residential town," she said. She made reference to the petition of over fifty names that had been given to the Planning and Zoning Commission, and asked if that had carried any weight. Evidently it hadn't, she said, and added that they felt they had "been bumping up against a stone wall." Polly Williams of Spokane Avenue also registered a brief protest.

Vice-Mayor Lewis Howell said that in reviewing the situation with the good of the city as a focal point, one important thing must not be forgotten. When Hill Lumber moves, sales tax moves with them and must be replaced with something to maintain a balanced economy. Either business or multiples must replace the loss in revenue. He reminded the Council audience that Albany has the lowest tax rate in Alameda County. "Apartments are better," he said, "than piles of lumber. And automobiles are better than trucks." He also pointed out that the land values are so high that cheap structures would not be practicable.

Councilman Hein made the motion for the rezoning according to the recommendation by the Planning and Zoning Commission and the motion was passed and Albany City Attorney Larry Saler will draw up the necessary Resolution.

In other City business, the amendment in regard to Residential Signs was rescinded. The amendment will allow the size of signs to increase to three square feet for patriotic displays, political preferences, holiday and charitable promotion. It provides for a time limit before and after the display before they must, by law, be removed.

The Park and Recreation Commission working with the Park and Recreation Director were authorized to hire a Senior Citizen Director for a forty hour week at $400.00 per month.

A complaint for damages filed by Lynn Bodinger vs. the City of Albany for personal injury was denied and referred to City Attorney Saler and the City insurance carrier.

The request for a variance permit for 1013-1015 was referred to the Planning and Zoning Committee for recommendation.

The Albany City Council will meet on November 13, Tuesday, because of the Armistice holiday.

KNEE INJURY benches Davis' "brightest hope," Albany's Ron Sbragia.

Ron Sbragia Sidelined For Rest of Season

The University of California Mustangs from Davis, are being aided in their quest for the Far Western League title by a host of Berkeley players on their roster.

In the backfield, halfback Mike Doyle, a sophomore, has been instrumental in spearheading the Aggie's wing-T to a 4-2-0 season. To Head Coach Will Lotter, Mike has been a pleasant surprise for the season, filling in for injured veteran Ron Sbragia from Albany. Sbragia, who injured his knee early in the season, was one of Coach Lotter's brightest hopes as junior fullback of the team.

The second member of the powerful Berkeley contingent is Phil Fox. Fox, a defensive tackle, has proven an outstanding player, but since his injury in the Humboldt State game, Oct. 20, he has been replaced by yet another Berkeley high school player, George Ruben.

Although sidelined for the balance of this season, Sbragia is expected to be a big gun for the Aggies next year.

Berkeley Youth Baseball League Guests at Dinner

Berkeley Lodge 270, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will join with the other lodges of District 64 (Oakland 3, Fountain 401 and El Cerrito 503) in sponsoring an annual Baseball Dinner honoring the boys of the 1962 District 64 Team of the Berkeley Youth Baseball League. The dinner will be open to Odd Fellows and their friends and a small charge will be made.

Past District Grand Master John Arkinstall is chairman of the committee on arrangements. The film of the 1961 World Series will be exhibited. Ray Hamrick, a former player of the Oakland Oaks, and Eddie Lake, scout for the Minnesota Twins, will give short talks. Janet Nelson, a delegate on the 1962 Odd Fellows United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth Tour, will give an illustrated talk in her experiences on the tour.

SENIOR CITIZENS
The power of mind over matter was once again demonstrated as the Seniors at 850 Masonic had themselves a Halloween party that was acclaimed "the most" on October 30th, even without the aid of Chic Sales.

Gaily accounted gentlemen and decorated damsels danced folk dances, Virginia Reels, and partook of traditional Halloween fare... pumpkin pie and cider. Games and contests provoking gales of laughter and winning the contestants novelty prizes helped make the event a total success.

Gray Boy Celebrates National Cat Week

MAN HAS ONLY ONE LIFE to give for his country, but Gray Boy (who is a female feline) is a reminder during National Cat Week, that she has nine. Gray Boy, who is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Carl MacWilliams was born in the bird bath in the rear yard at 829 Ramona Avenue. On October 17, she celebrated her twentieth birthday. She lives in a household with two younger male cats and a dog. She is without a question the matriarch of the MacWilliams' home. Her favorite foods include milk chocolate bars and burned meat. She ignores the usual "Kitty, Kitty" call but, like any other lady of glamour, responds instantly to a whistle.

November

Woman of the Month

Antoinette Stallone

Antoinette Stallone was born in San Francisco on Telegraph Hill. Shortly after the earthquake, her family moved to Albany. Antoinette has lived here for 41 years.

She attended Cornell School, Garfield Jr. High School and Berkeley High School.

Antoinette has raised three nieces: Lee Ann Pisciotta, a concert pianist who is now married and has three daughters; Rosalie Stallone, whose lyric voice is well known in music circles; and her young namesake, Antoinette Stallone. Her brother, Paul, and her father-in-law, Vito Stallone, live with her.

She can be found acting as Girl-Friday to her brother, Victor Stallone, Albany physician and surgeon.

A busy household and a business career have not entirely encompassed her life. Her community activities include membership in the Native Daughters of the Golden West, where she once served presidency; Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion; and a seven year membership in the Soroptimist Club where she was installed as president on June 21 of this year. She has also served as recording secretary and treasurer of the Soroptimist. Antoinette's life of unselfish service to both community and home make her the Albany Times' selection for Albany's November Woman of the Month.

Scoutmaster Frank Birch also was honored at the Court of Honor. He was presented with a pin emblematic of 11 years service to Scouting.

THE ALBANY NORTH BERKELEY Chapter of the American Association of Retired Persons will hold their next meeting on Tuesday, November 13, at the Albany Bowl. The meeting will be chiefly for the election of officers for 1963. A discussion of topics will follow.
